THE ATLANTIC

THE CAPTAIN

An ocean to plate philosophy inspires everything we do. Every morning, The Atlantic team hand-picks an unrivalled selection of wild and sustainable fish, unique oyster varieties and pristine shellfish to bring to today's menu.

Executive Chef, Donovan Cooke, has created a series of menus designed to rouse the senses; from the oyster bar and à la carte, through to the degustation menus. This harvest is complemented by carefully sourced produce from Australia's best local and specialist suppliers.

Some may think it obsessive to hunt for the perfect ingredient. For The Atlantic, it is a necessity.

Let us transport you back to the famous New York meat packing district, with the hustle and bustle of the fish markets adding interest and flavour to your vision. Now add an uncompromising focus on excellence, the selection of only the very best in fresh produce, and the oceans strongest culinary captain, Donovan Cooke.

It is this spirit that infuses every aspect of The Atlantic, from its design and ambiance, to service and cuisine; all perfected in a magnificent waterfront location.
